Description:

like to joke that when Shirley MacLaine was out on a limb, I was already out on a branch, says Oscar-nominated actress, teacher, healer, and motivational speaker Diane Ladd. She brings her unique wisdom about life, health, love, family, and emotional well-being to this fascinating book. Reading this book is like having a cup of coffee in her comfy Austin, Texas, kitchen. In an earthy, charming, down-home way filled, with touching, moving, and downright hilarious observations and stories, this book explains how you can keep your life from spiraling out of control. I want to help save lives with this book, Diane says. I feel that the ultimate gift is helping another person find the miracles that surround them.

This is a beautiful and very personal revelation of one of the most unique and precious of human beings. I have always admired her body of work and had no idea who she was or how she came to be an actress, and one of our best of all time. This book is full of inspiration and, at the same time, is heart wrenching and so, so real. Diane Ladd is my hero and my champion. She proves that you can survive anything and make something of your life, and do right by those around you. She is warm and funny and outrageous and she cares deeply. Her love stories, the one about having her daughter Laura, and then later in life meeting her husband, are the icing on this delicious peek into a life well lived. I could not put it down. Every struggling single mom should read it.
